IN GOD ALONE

Isaiah speaks to us today of Cyrus, King of Persia, anointed by the Lord. God calls Cyrus by name and leads him in service to the Israelites. In this passage we hear that it is the Lord who gives Cyrus his title, who arms him against his enemies, and who opens doors and unbars gates before him. And God does all of this so that the people will know that "I am the LORD," and that "there is none besides me" (Isaiah 45:6).

Paul opens his letter with essentially the same notion – that in God alone we find our grace and peace. Paul also gives thanks to God on our behalf, calling to mind our work of faith, hope, and love. And in the familiar Gospel reading, Jesus tells the Pharisees to give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's.

From the Office of Bishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When our Holy Father Benedict XVI recently visited his native country, Germany, he reminded all Catholics of their responsibility to be faithful to our church and invited them to be the light and salt to the world. We are all called to do this in response to Jesus who called us to "Go to the world and proclaim the Good News of God's Love for all men."

Think of St. Therese of Lisieux who became a great missionary by her prayers and daily sacrifices. We can do the same by following her example. Let us pray for all those working in third world countries like our own Father Dennis O'Brien. He proclaims the "Good News" on behalf of us all. Father Dennis and many other missionaries are asking us to support their mission with prayers and extra donations on the upcoming "WORLD MISSION SUNDAY" the weekend of October 22-23, 2011.

I pray you will proclaim the good news in your extra donation as a sign of your readiness to respond to Jesus' call. This mission is very real in today's world as evidenced by Father O'Brien and many other missionaries on our behalf.

May God bless you and our diocese.
Sincerely yours in Christ
