CHANGE OUR LIVES

The letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent, and that devoting time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor subsided a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart, if we really believe that Christ still may come upon us as a "thief at night" (1 Thessalonians 5:2). Does this mean that we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus.

On Guard Online

KNOW WHAT YOU KIDS ARE DOING

Get to know the social networking sites your kids use so you know how best to understand their activities. You may want to search the social sites they use to see what information they're posting. Are they pretending to be someone else? Try searching by their name, nickname, school, hobbies, grade or community.

USE PRIVACY SETTINGS TO RESTRICT WHO CAN ACCESS AND POST ON YOUR CHILD'S PROFILE.

Some social networking sites, chat rooms and blogs have strong privacy settings. Talk to you kids about these settings, and your expectations for who should be allowed to view their profile.

TELL YOUR TEENS ABOUT AVOIDING SEX TALK ONLINE.

Research shows that teens who don't talk about sex with strangers on line are less likely to come in contact with predators. In fact, researchers have found that predators usually don't pose as children or teens, and most teens who are contacted by adults they don't know find it creepy. Teens should not hesitate block or delete them to ignore or block them.

Sacred Signs: The Sign of the Cross

As we await the Third Roman Missal let's reflect on the signs & treasures of our faith from a book of only thirty pages that is sadly out of print...

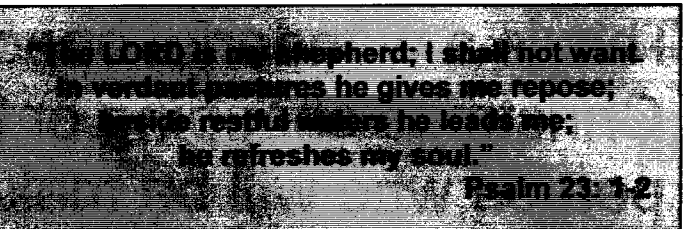

"When we cross ourselves, let it be with a real sign of the cross. Instead of a small cramped gesture that gives no notion of its meaning, let us make a large unhurried sign, from forehead to breast, from shoulder to shoulder, consciously feeling how it includes the whole of us, our thoughts, our attitudes our body and soul, every part of us at once. How it consecrates and sanctifies us.

It does so because it is the Sign of the universe & the sign of our redemption. On the cross Christ redeemed mankind. By the cross he sanctifies man to the last shred and fiber of his being. We make the sign of the cross before we pray to collect and compose ourselves and to fix our minds and hearts and wills upon God. We make it when we finish praying in order that we may hold fast to the gift we have received from God. In temptations we sign ourselves to be strengthened; in dangers, to be protected. The cross is signed upon us in blessings in order that the fullness of God's life may flow into the soul and fructify and sanctify us wholly.

Think of these things when you make the sign of the cross. It is the holiest of all signs. Make a large cross, taking time, thinking what you do. Let it take in your whole being,— body, soul, mind, will thoughts, feeling, your doing and not doing—and by signing it with the cross strengthen and consecrate the whole in the strength of Christ, in the name of the triune God."
