Treasurer's Report:

Ending balance as of September 16, 2010 $1,896.54

Karen Wright, Youth Ministry leader, once again summarized how all the Youth activities will be set-up for the Fall Carnival on November 7, 2010. This service project will start from 11AM-2-30PM in the Mary Star of the Sea Meeting Room and outside on the grounds around the Church property. Most of the booths and games will be outside and baked goods, plants, jewelry, knitted items and drawings for quilted wall hangings to take place inside. Also, a cake walk with parents baking some of the cakes with their recipe attached. Publix also donated a gift certificate to purchase some cakes. Fall theme for cake walk "When the Saints go marching in."

Parents as well as CCW members will help with many of these activities.

There will be lunch plates of BBQ, hot dogs, nachos, pickles on a stick, popcorn, cotton candy and water

The goal of this service project for the Youth Group to help local families at Christmas through St. Vincent de Paul. Also, to give service and donations where it is most needed.

Also, with many of the donated items, we will share some of the proceeds with the Youth Group. All of the baked goods proceeds will be for the Youth Group activities.

The Men's Club Pancake Breakfast fundraiser generated $3,294.00 to outfit their fish fry trailer.

Deanna O'Hare made a motion for a $200.00 gift for Father Tom, Lorraine Maioriello seconded and all approved. Motion carried.

Deanna O'Hare made a motion for a $50.00 gift for Deacon Dave Casey, Alice Hiersche seconded and all approved. Motion carried.

Deanna O'Hare - CCW funds can be donated to local ministries and to our Youth group ministries. This is still under discussion.

St. Rita Thanksgiving Dinner – November 25, 2010 – Mary Star of the Sea Meeting room.
