STRENGTH AGAINST OPPOSITION

In appointing Jeremiah to stand up to the people and announce the truth, God at the same time promised him the strength to do the job. "They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you" (Jeremiah 1:19).
 Jesus also faced opposition, right from the start. In his home town of Nazareth the people couldn't accept the idea that someone from among their own could be God's messenger. "[F]illed with fury," they expelled Jesus from town and would have hurled him over the edge of the hill. "But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away" (Luke 4:28, 30).
 Although the true prophet has strength from God, Saint Paul says there's something even more important than suffering death for the sake of God's word. "[I]f I hand my body over so that I may boast, but have not love, I gain nothing" (1 Corinthians 13:3).

Blessing of the Throats Feast of St. Blaise

Wednesday, February 3rd
After the 5:00 pm Mass

Two candles are blessed, held slightly open, and pressed against the throat as the blessing of St. Blaise is said. St. Blaise's protection of those with throat problems comes from a legend of a young boy with a fish bone stuck in his throat who was brought to St. Blaise and was healed.
