EMBRACING YOUR CROSS

We often speak of the "crosses" we must carry in life. These can range from loss of a job to a serious or terminal illness to unhealthy relationships, and so on. The cross has become the wide-ranging metaphor for the trials, ills, and discomforts that are part and parcel of every human life. While we all understand this use of the word "cross," it does a disservice to what the Jesus of the Gospels means by it. For him, a "cross" is not something that fate, bad luck, or unfortunate circumstances foists upon one. It is, instead, something one chooses, something one embraces.

For Jesus, carrying the cross in discipleship was the rejection of earthly possessions or status, it was the sundering of bonds of kinship or friendship. It was, above all, the necessary kind of self-sacrificing, self-surrendering choice one had to make in order to be a true disciple. When life hands us a "cross," we pray to the Lord to give us strength to bear it. If we are to be true disciples, we must also pray for the strength to reach out and willingly accept a cross as well. To bear up, with God's grace, under the burdens that are not of our own choosing does take a strong faith. But to walk willingly under the weight of the cost of discipleship shows an even stronger desire to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ.

In your prayers, please remember those whose names are in our prayer intention book in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. Pray for those who are sick and recovering, especially John LeBleu, Joseph LeBleu, Jerry B. Johnston, Rita Moran, Jack Weidman, Concetta Loduca, Michael McKeon, Danika & Darya Darley, Bob James, Sam Stokes, Carson Doss, Isabelle O'Brian, Bob Wish, Molly Elder, Charles Modica, Flamarion & Janita Ayuso, Noah Bishop, Mary Kelly, Shannon Williams, Noel Daigle, Thomas Jahanian, Lauren Olinde, Lorelei Stroble, Chad Lepak, Matt Pitts, Tonya Sisson, Fran Lester, Marge Quast, Donald Schaeffer, Agnes Dickey, Bob Borella, Jay Burns, Baby Elizabeth Nave, Daniel Lesh, Richard Rahilly, Anne Stay, Mary Mathier, Pat Cullen, Toni Goyette, Dolores Brashear, Rosalie Sumrall, Wesley Langston, Cliff Wesson, Arla Dangel, Ken & Audrey Schommer, Tony Faggioni, Nancy Cassidy, Rob Rookis & Melissa Savoie.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Sonja VanDerZee, mother of Linda Sloan, who died the past week. Also, please pray for the consolation of her family and friends.

KIDS!

TALK TO ADULTS ABOUT BULLYING!!!

Cyberbullying can range from rude comments to lies , impersonation and threats, your responses will depend on the nature & severity of the bullying. Here are some parental actions parents might consider to take after the fact:

1. Strongly encourage your child not to respond to the bullying.
2. Save messages and pictures as evidence.
3. Try to identify the individual doing the bullying; track them thru the internet service provider; if the bullying is criminal (threats of violence, extortion, obscene or harassing phone calls or text messages, child pornography or taking photo images of someone in a place where her or she would expect privacy—ask The police to do the tracking.
